What is life at # St. Wendelin High School?

"Hold still you pesky little devil."
grins Mike Hammer.

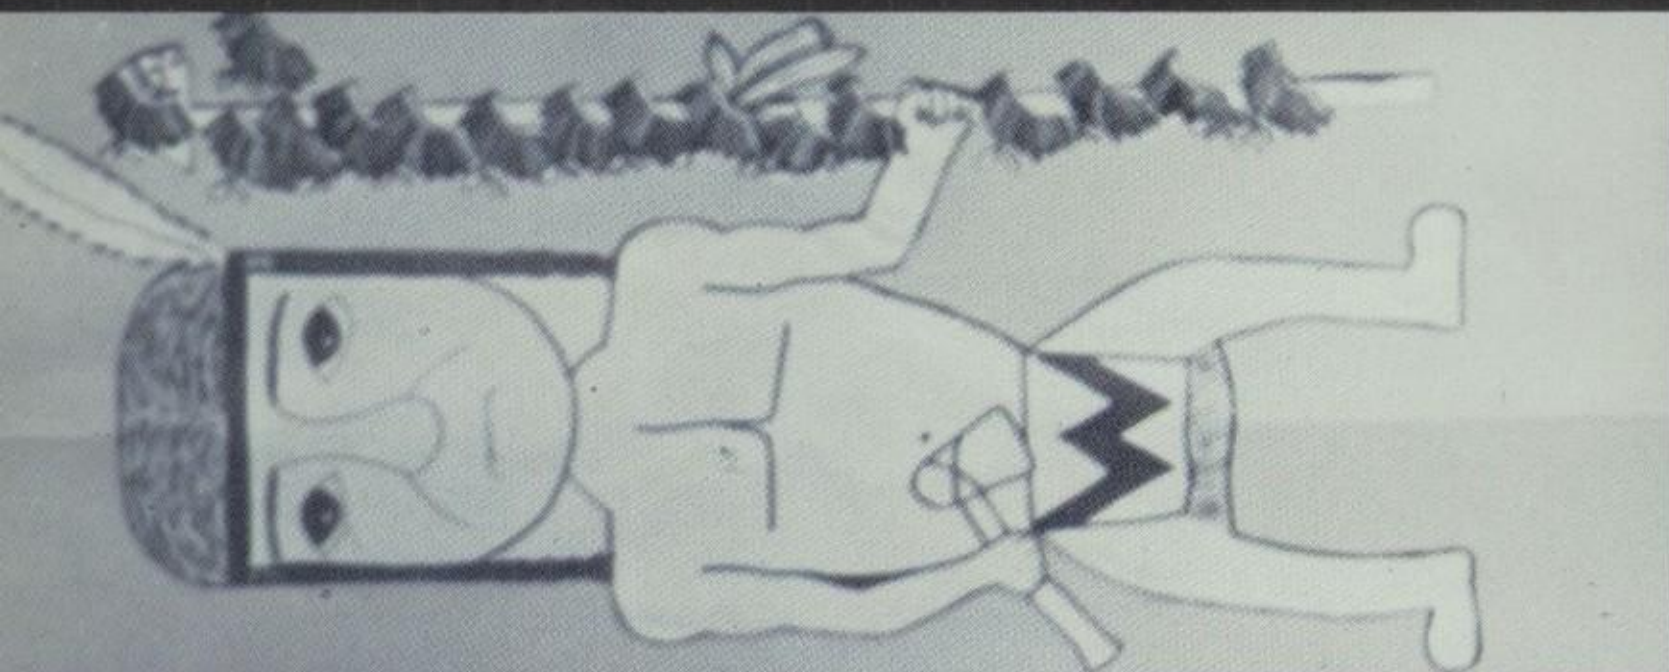

"I should have sworn I heard a
-bird!" says Marty Wagner.

"Who is the clod who just hit me in the head with a pickle?" questions Denny Yost.

The students at St. Wendelin this year have developed a new-found "spirit".

As you can see, Brenda Cassidy is a real down to Earth girl!

"My girdle is killing me," moans
Lori Cook.

"If he hits me with a paper wad
one more time I'll . . .," threatens Robin Maier.

Life at St. Wendelin High School is a series of unique and unusual encounters.

Mr. Henley gives his full attention to his history class. Ho-hum.

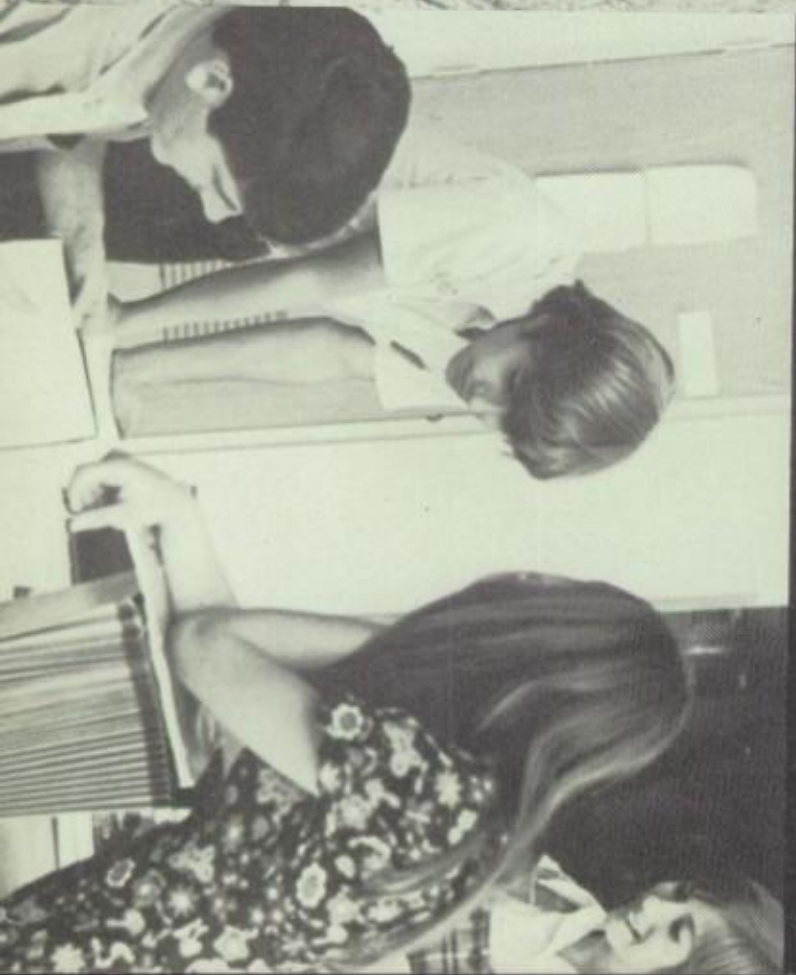

When I work, I work hard; when I sit, I sit loose; and when I think, I fall asleep.

Each time a man stands up for an ideal, he sends forth a ripple of hope.

In introduction to Social Science, it seems as if boredom has become a disease.

Doc, Woody, Gran and Mary try to negotiate a peace treaty for their American History class.

OK guys, if we just put our heads together we could come up with the formula!

"Mr. Toskas said this was a simple experiment—but why aren't getting results?"

Mary always was picky about what she ate!

Today's problem in Physics is brain mass: Weight of Fred's brain divided by size of Jeff's noggin, minus Dave's capacity equals . . . . .

"Dish up guys, if you want to risk it," Tim tells his fellow cooks.

Mrs. Wollam asks Mrs. Laube's advice on how to boil water.

"I love my coat," thinks Sue in sewing class.

"This is the way you beat your batter," sings little Susie Home-maker in Home Ec.

Her eyes were blue—36-24-36 = ???

Ah! He finally killed her!

His unconquerable spirit told us;
"Don't become discouraged if you should falter over the rock in your path, it is better to pick yourself up and continue than to curse the unhearing rock."

While he stayed amongst us,
many times he fell over that rock and just as many times he picked himself back up. Because of this, many love him, and when his calling took him back to his native land, they will remember him not as a priest, not as a foreigner, but as Father Fabio Blanco-friend.

"Oh Tantombaum . . . oh Tantombaum," sings Janet as she trims the first Christmas tree in S.W.H.S. history.

1973 marked the birth of a new concept in the S.W.H.S. form of student government . . . the Student-Faculty Senate. This senate is composed of four faculty members and twelve students, plus the two administrative heads and a student president.

The S.F.S. did much to help improve the atmosphere around school by awarding sophomores their class rings at the end of their sophomore year rather than the middle of their junior year; granting the seniors a lounge to use during their free study halls; installing a PEPSI machine in the lobby; arranging for various assemblies; setting up a Christmas tree; heading the annual Mission Carnival, and establishing a boys intramural basketball team.

The 1972-73 Mohawks started their season in mid-July hoping to achieve a successful season of hard hitting, bone-crushing football.

Their goals would have been achieved if it were not for one team—ST. WENDELIN. The Mohawks had to fight themselves and it cost them many a game as they ended up the year with a 3-5-1 record.

Mistakes and untimely acts proved costly to this team. The Mohawks are something to be proud of though, for they out-played their opposition 90% of the time. The coaching staff and their 43 players showed what brand of football they could play when they "put it all together".

The Mohawks defensive unit made their opponents run spastic.

Prepare ye the way of the Mohawks!

... we must realize our strengths as well as our weaknesses;
we must develop
our abilities,
gain confidence in ourselves,
and strive
for further victories.

These defensive aces find it impossible to bring down the Mohawks-running back, Dave Bodart.

Look what woman's lib has done to our team.

"It's the other team's ball because you guys play too rough."

"WHAT, me worry? ? ?"

The Cross-Country team finished another successful winning season with a 6-4 record. The Mohawk harriers fared well against the larger teams. In doing so they showed their determination and drive for good ole SWHS. Those participating in the running this year: bottom row: Mike Lee, Gary Wade, and Dave Pel-tier. Top row: Coach Gary Vaughn, Steve Gillig, Bill Wolph, Tim Karg, Dick Martin, John Gase, Gary Sendel-bach, and Tim Waltermeyer. Dick Martin finished 7th in sectional competition and then journeyed to be the 17th best runner in the district.

HARDWARE

Under the coaching of Dino Caporini the reserves sprinted off to 12 straight wins before being dishd their initial loss. Disciplined basketball provided the needed edge that the Mohawk reserves possessed. Sheer guts, hustle, and determination enabled them to win all of their remaining games before losing to Lakota in their season finale.

All eyes are on Gary Reiter as he soars high to get the tip.

With brute strength Andy manages to cash in for a three point play.

The Kenny Herman weave is back! Our frosh are once again led by an inspired coach. The Frosh Hermanites sliced through their opposing players like a hot knife through butter. The cheers echoed through the old gym for another year as the frosh cagers put together a 4-5 season.

FROSH HERMANITES

Mr. Herman calls a timeout to tell his team of a devious plot to upset the foe.

This Old Fort Stockader seems to be lost as these four Mohawks thoroughly shut off all passing lanes.
